A Plus National Team

High Performance Training Program 2026–2027

Invitation Only | Limited Enrollment

A Plus Tennis offers comprehensive player development from foundational training through collegiate and professional pathways. The A Plus National Team is an invitation-only high performance environment designed for nationally competitive players seeking academy-level development while utilizing flexible academic pathways including traditional school, online school, hybrid, and homeschool models.

Program Highlights

• Academy-Level Training Environment Without Full-Time Relocation

• Monday–Friday 2:00 PM – 6:00 PM High Performance Structure

• Integrated Technical, Tactical, Physical, and Mental Development

• Daily Strength & Conditioning and Athletic Performance Training

• Transportation between training and fitness locations provided through the A Plus van system

• Developed multiple Gold, Silver, and Bronze Ball players along with over a dozen nationally ranked Top-100 athletes in recent years

• Enrollment is intentionally limited to maintain individualized attention and training quality

Leadership & Coaching Staff

The A Plus National Team is led by Jimmy Davis, Head Coach of George Mason University Men's Tennis, alongside a high-performance coaching staff consisting of collegiate coaches, national-level training professionals, fitness specialists, and Division I hitting partners.
